

Chuck Tripi, born deaf, mainstreamed in oral communication schools. Married to Linda, who is Cultural Deaf, in 1997, and now have three hearing children. Chuck received his Bachelor of Business Administration (Management Information Systems) at UW-Milwaukee in 2007. He started learning “English” signs in early 1990; Chuck grew rapidly into Deaf Culture, experiencing the interpreting process, and American Sign Language with conceptual accuracy. Chuck’s wife is involved in teaching in an Interpreting Training Program, it made Chuck understand more of how important clarification is in religion interpreting. Chuck has taught many Bible Studies to both Deaf and Hearing people. Chuck has the urge for proper Biblical interpretations so others can learn and grow. Chuck’s interests are religion sings and songs.
