

Victor Malave

Victor Malave was born in Brooklyn, New York. He attended the Lexington School for the Deaf in New York. He is also a former American Sign Language tutor at North Central Technical College in Wausau, Wisconsin assisting in their Educational Interpreter Technician Program. Victor was involved the National Theatre of the Deaf as a student in high school. During his time in High School, he performed in the "The Wizard of OZ", Break Danced and Signed Songs in ASL. The most famous and popular show was called "Cats". Victor has a passion for teaching American Sign Language, Bible Studies and really enjoys signing songs. He has been a Christian for the last 8 years.

Casey Porter

I was born Deaf. I am third generation Deaf. Both of my parents are Deaf and my grandmother is also Deaf. I attended Wisconsin school for the Deaf from 1988 to 1993 and California school for the Deaf from 1995 to 1997. I came from a rough life and background until I found God in 2006. I went to prison for 27 months and it was the best part of my life! I came to know the Lord and became so close to Him! I grew so much in the knowledge of God's Word (the Bible). That is when I knew God had called me to preach the Gospel to the Deaf world. I always have had the talent for storytelling, comedy, etc. However, now I can use my talent for the Lord to bring the Gospel to those who are lost because I can relate to many people who are struggling with various things in life.